CUSTER ★

OF THE SEVENTH CAVALRY

The indomitable spirit of "Custer's Pride," the renowned Seventh Cavalry which once fought with red skins where now twenty-two men fight over pig skins, is deeply ingrained in the institution which now occupies the site where once these men lived and fought.

The leadership which they displayed in conquering the plains for civilization is the leadership which our institution, the Fort Hays Kansas State College, is taking to educate the sons and daughters of these western plains. And the hardy pioneer spirit, that spirit which caused the first settlers to stay on through drouth and flood, through hardships and massacres, is part and parcel of this present generation, who also carry on. Our problems today may differ vastly from those of our forebears, but they are similar in that they must be faced, and an attempt made to solve them.

The unconquerable spirit of the old Seventh Cavalry is incorporated and shines forth from the song which we proudly sing:

Western Kansans' Alma Mater
Hail ye men who did create her,
No one else can boast a greater—
K. S. C. Fort Hays.
Sons and daughters chaunting,
Black and Gold flag flaunting,
Melodious strains of western plains,
For Right stands she undaunting,
Raise your voices, swell the chorus,
Honor those who went before us,
Labor that she may adore us,
K. S. C. Fort Hays.

Western Empire lies before Thee
On the wind-swept rolling prairie,
Great, as only boldly dare Thee—
K. S. C. Fort Hays.
Sons and daughters seeking,
Trusting to her keeping,
The younger seeds of epic deeds
And future harvest reaping.
Sing her praises, she who taught you
How to live, and how comport you
Cheer for her who nobly wrought you
K. S. C. Fort Hays.

FORT HAYS OF YESTERDAY

Fort Hays, a military post, which was established in the year 1867 by General Pope, was really built to serve as protection against the Indians who made numerous attacks on the settlers of Fort Hays and to ward off the buffalo stampedes which were quite frequent.

At first, the rolling plains of Kansas seemed uninviting to the people of the East. It appeared to be only an endless chain of prairies—practically timberless and hardly anything but buffalo grass would grow well.

With the approach of the Kansas Pacific Railroad, which was being constructed near Fort Hays, many people were attracted to the land of the plains. They settled about one mile north of Fort Hays with only the Big Creek between the settlers and the soldiers. This led to the founding of Hays City.

The early settlers and soldiers had to undergo serious privations including floods, Indian scares and drouth. Little did they dream that in less than seventy years a great institution of higher learning would be well rooted in the midst of their descendants.

FORT HAYS OF TOMORROW

Fort Hays, the college of Western Kansas; may it give independent children of independent pioneers a chance to think, to live, and to grow.

With a beautiful campus always growing as the visible symbol of increasing knowledge, with the fitting of students to know themselves and their fellows, Fort Hays will become a means of transmutation of civilizations, making scorching plains the storehouse of secrets of living a life.

The wind and dirt, the sun and rain beat hard against native stones and weather them a grey. But a grey of hope and endurance and courage, not one of defeat and meek acceptance. May we hope that the future student will be so weathered by these things: the campus, the permutation of ideals and ideas of teachers and books, the stimulus of kindred minds—each a step toward the goal.

GRIDSTERS IN SECOND

Again the Central Intercollegiate Conference football championship has been brought to Fort Hays by a hard working, hard driving grid machine. This year the supervisor was "Jim" Yeager who replaced Jack Riley when Jack accepted a coaching job at Pottstown, Pennsylvania. Assistant coaches this year were "Bill" Bearley, a graduate of Fort Hays who has returned to his alma mater, and "Busch" Gross.

The championship this year was shared by three schools, Fort Hays, Pittsburg, and Wichita. Each team won three games and lost one.

Playing on the new gridiron in front of the old Golden Belt Fair grandstand, Fort Hays opened its 1935 season, indicating its vast power, by crushing a champion Augustana eleven from South Dakota, 34 to 6. This contest was meant to test the power of the Bengal eleven, but that power was never extended, and spectators left the game wondering just how much strength had been held in reserve.

The next engagement was also meant to be a test for the Tigers, but this time they clawed the Chadron Teachers, of Nebraska, into a 26 to 0 defeat. Once more the Tigers were untested as to their real ability.

Then came what may be termed the climax of the season. Fort Hays traveled to Manhattan, and with Bill Reissig booting a placement kick in the third period, hung a 3 to 0 defeat on Kansas State, the Big Six Champions. This victory was acclaimed by many to be the biggest upset in the Missouri Valley that Saturday.

After these three straight victories, the tide turned against the Tigers. They were ridden by an "every-other-game" jinx that worked with alarming regularity. And the Tigers were always defeated when playing on a muddy or slick field. Playing on a muddy field, Fort Hays lost to Emporia Teachers 3 to 0. However, due to the ineligibility of one of their players, Emporia was required to forfeit the victory to Fort Hays, 1 to 0.

Again Fort Hays rose to the heights, and the next week trampled a good Wichita team 34 to 6. Larry Mullins, coach of St. Benedicts, said of the Tigers in that game, "Fort Hays is one of the best small college teams in the country." But Fort Hays, on the next Saturday, again playing on a muddy field, mired into an 18 to 0 defeat at the hands of St. Benedicts.

Resuming conference play, Fort Hays defeated the Southwestern Moundbuilders 20 to 0. And then, for the third straight time when playing on a slick field, Fort Hays was defeated, this time by Pittsburg, 21 to 0.

Having finished its conference schedule with a record of three wins and one loss, Fort Hays finished out its season by defeating Washburn, a representative of the Missouri Valley Conference, 21 to 6, and then romped on the Oklahoma Baptists in a Turkey Day game, 42 to 0.

A summary of the 1935 season shows that Fort Hays won 8 and lost 2 games, rolling up 172 points against 57 points for the opponents.

And now to introduce the 1935 Central Conference co-champions:

CONFERENCE VICTORY

Sylvester Palmer, co-captain, a senior, and for four years an important member of the Fort Hays backfield, is considered one of the best "spin-backs" in the state. His playing earned him a berth on the mythical all-state and all-conference elevens.

Dennis McKee, co-captain, a senior, and a four-year man, is a rather small guard whose fight and drive have placed him on a "little all-American" team, the all-conference team, and the second all-state team.

Ed Bender, a senior, played tackle for four years in such a smashing manner that it earned him an honorable mention on a "little all-American," and a place on the second all-conference team.

George Gruver, senior end, and for the second straight year a member of the second all-conference team, is a dashing type of player, strong at spilling interference.

Shim Dreiling, co-captain, a senior and for four years an important stone in the front wall, is a fast guard, good at leading interference. His play merited him a place on the second all-conference team.

Ralph Huffman, junior center, by his consistent playing won a second all-conference rating. He played defensive fullback excellently.

Alvin Staab, sophomore halfback and possessor of two letters, gained a berth on the second all-conference team in spite of being out of several games because of an injury.

Bill Reissig, a fullback who was shifted to end, and whose educated toe added several points to the Fort Hays column, was responsible for two Fort Hays victories.

Eugene Niewald, a junior and a powerful, hard-hitting halfback, has earned three letters.

Herb Bender, a sophomore and a powerhouse at fullback, through his off-tackle smashes and drives into the line led the conference in scoring.

Rudolph Skubal, a sophomore and smashing tackle, has earned two letters.

Chester Mitchell is another big, rugged tackle who in his first year has demonstrated his worth to the team.

Woody Reinhold, a senior, was for four years an end. Wade Zeigler, a senior, was for two years a guard. Ellis Reinhardt, senior end, earned two letters.

Other lettermen on the squad are: Eugene Allen, back; Charles Burgess, back; Harold Darnell, back; Keith Elder, back; Tom Mosier, end; George Neelly, end; Dale Neelly, guard; Ward Riegel, fleet-footed freshman back; Harold Rotrock, center; Harold Randall, tackle; James Rawson, back; Dale Shellhaas, tackle; Paul Stenger, back; Howard Stehwein, center; Dale Underwood, back; Nicholas Smith, guard.

SECOND PLACE HONOR

Five lettermen, captain-elect Herman Schwartzkopf, Richard Staab, Arthur Leas, Rufus Jamison, and Ray Thurlow answered the call for the 1936 basketball season. These were accompanied by three members of last year's "B" squad and several members of last year's second squad, forecasting what appeared to be a very promising season.

The season was opened on the home court by winning from Friends 33 to 11. Another non-conference victory over Bethel, 33 to 23, followed.

Opening the conference season on the home court, Fort Hays turned back Emporia twice, 44 to 32, and 35 to 20, in rather poorly played games, but games which showed the potential power of the Fort Hays quintet.

To keep in condition during the holidays, Fort Hays engaged McPherson in a non-conference game and was victorious, 37 to 22.

Fort Hays retained the conference lead and became championship favorites when they turned back the strong Southwestern crew twice 33 to 28, and 30 to 28.

The Tigers in a trip to Wichita, suffered a relapse in playing form, losing both games by the scores of 36 to 38, and 41 to 44. Both times they lost the lead in the last few minutes of play.

Again playing out of the conference, Fort Hays, on its home court, defeated the Haskell Indians 31 to 18.

Once more the Tigers had a winning streak in conference play. They turned back Pittsburg here, in the first game 36 to 27, and in the second game, 41 to 19. Then they traveled to Emporia to win twice, 33 to 28, and 35 to 28. This increased Fort Hays' conference standing to 8 wins and 2 losses.

LEAS

TO COURT QUINTET

Resting in first place, the Tigers turned aside from conference play to defeat the St. Benedicts quintet, 43 to 29.

A disastrous road trip to Southwestern dropped Fort Hays from first to second place and advanced the Winfield quintet from second to first place, when they defeated the Tigers twice, 27 to 29, and 24 to 36.

Needing to win the last four games in order to win the conference championship,

HERMAN SCHWARTZKOPF
Captain

Fort Hays whipped Wichita twice, 39 to 31, and 34 to 30, but went down to a double defeat on the Pittsburg trip 28 to 32, and 45 to 30, thus dropping to second place and allowing Southwestern to step into undisputed first place.

Second place is the highest position the Tigers have ever been able to attain in the conference rankings. This year is the second time Fort Hays has attained that position.

Fort Hays throughout the season played a high brand of ball and rewarded the large crowds that turned out to see them, with spectacular playing. Throughout the season the Tigers rang up 723 points to their opponents 588 points, an average of 34 points to 27 points per game.

All-conference honors went to Richard Staab, center, who was voted all-conference center and captain, and Herman Schwartzkopf who earned a guard position on the all-conference team. Herbert Baker and Chester Mitchell received honorable mention in the all-conference ratings.

This year eleven men were lettered. They are: Herman Schwartzkopf, captain and guard; Richard Staab, center; Arthur Leas, forward; Herbert Baker, forward; Chester Mitchell, guard; Ralph Hinkle, forward;

INTRA-MURALS

Intra-mural sports now play an important part at Fort Hays for boys who don't care to try out for inter-collegiate sports but who like to participate in sports throughout the year.

Under the supervision of the student director, "Gub" McDonald, intra-murals include speedball, horseshoe, volley ball, baseball, basketball, and tennis. As the Reveille goes to press, only two divisions have been completed, namely speedball and basketball. Each of these was won by the Spanish Athletic Club, a group of barrack boys.

This year there are teams of five organizations and three independent teams entered in the competition. The fraternities are Phi Mu Alpha, Phi Sigma Epsilon, Kappa Beta Tau and Sigma Tau Gamma. The non-fraternal organizations are the Y.M.C.A., and three independent teams, which are the Spanish Athletic Club, Willison's Ramblers and Opdycke's team.

Although at this writing it is unknown how many baseball teams will enter or how many tennis players there will be it is believed that there will be at least eight baseball teams and at least a hundred singles players in tennis. Tennis has become more popular the last two years because of the reconditioned courts and there is now a large percentage of the student body interested and playing tennis.

To make winning more desirable in intra-mural sports, a record of points are kept during the year and the team with the most points at the end of the season's play is awarded an intra-mural cup.

TRACK

Track at Fort Hays this year should have the most successful season it has ever had with twelve lettermen back in school and many promising freshmen reporting to fill out a well rounded squad. Under the tutelage of Jim Yeager, track has become more promising each year and now that Jim is leaving next year it is fitting that he leave with the memories of a winning track squad.

Lettermen reporting for practice are: Floyd Stephens, captain and broad jumper; Alvin Staab, dashman and javelin (Staab placed first in the conference meet last year); Eugene Holm, dashes; Lawrence Pfortmiller, weights; Colvin Kindschi, javelin; Norval Curry, pole vault and high jump; Wesley Burford, broad jump and high jump; Burtis Taylor, hurdles; Floyd Foley, hurdles; Vernal Duncan, distance man; Johnnie Michael, distance man; William Mog, distance man.

This year's schedule includes a dual meet with Kansas State, last year's indoor Big Six champions, May 2; a dual meet with Kearney State Teachers of Nebraska, April 16; a dual meet with Hastings of Nebraska, April 24; the Hastings Relays, April 11; a triangular meet with Wichita and Southwestern, May 8; and the conference meet at Wichita, May 14 and 15.

A feature attraction each spring is the running of the Western Kansas Relays in which several hundred high school tracksters of Western Kansas compete. Each year several records have been broken since its beginning several years ago.

"K" CLUB

The "K" Club is an organization of young men who wish to promote the spirit of good fellowship among athletes and to foster the spread of athletic activity on the campus. Sportsmanship is the main criterion of this club.

To become a member of this organization of athletes you must have earned a "K" letter in any sports activity. To be eligible for a "K" letter one must have passing grades in twelve hours of major subjects.

The records made by all the athletic teams this year have been favorable to the "K" Club as well as to the college. The football team made a remarkable record during the season. The men who are to receive their first "K" letter for football are Dale Neelly, George Neelly, Tom Mosier, Ward Riegel, Paul Stenger, Keith Elder, Chester Mitchell, James Rawson and Harold Darnell.

The basketball team also made an exceptionally good record. Two players, Richard Staab and Herman Schwartzkopf, were chosen for the all-conference team. Richard Staab was also chosen as all-state forward. Herb Baker and Chester Mitchell each received honorable mention rating for the season just closed. Those who are to receive a "K" letter for basketball are Herb Baker, Chester Mitchell, Ralph Hinkle, Ray Thurlow, Dale Neelly and Arnold McGrath.

The track captain last year was Herman Schwartzkopf. His team made one of the most outstanding records ever made by a Tiger track team. The track captain for this season is Floyd Stephens. He also has a very promising team. An authority on track said that the chances for this year's track team are just as good or even better than those of last year's team.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Women's Athletic Association is the organization for promotion of interest in women's sports. Points are given for participation in team sports, hockey, basketball and speedball, in the individual sports, swimming, hiking, archery, tennis and skating, and dancing. High awards of the organization are the "K" letters and sweaters. Clara Nicholas, Helen Frances Bice and Nora King have sweaters.

One of the outstanding annual events is the Play Day for high school girls. The program this year was the Olympics, held at the coliseum on May 9. Competition was among Olympic teams rather than between schools.

A great deal of interest has been evidenced in the intra-mural program. Volley ball, basketball, hit-pin baseball, tennis, and tenniquit are the sports played. The independent team, "Meredith's Team," captained by Mintie Meredith, won first place in basketball. The volley ball tournament cup was won by the Theta Sigma Upsilon team.

Ruth Schiller is the organization's president and Helen Frances Bice is the intra-mural head. The board consists of Celeste Lowrey, Ruth Cross, Helena O'Loughlin, Clara Nicholas and Anita Haag.

ORCHESIS

Orchesis is a dancing club composed of girls who have qualified for membership through the interpretive dancing class. The members study advanced techniques and learn group dances. This fall there was a unit on ballet, including toe technique.

Orchesis cooperates in putting on performances for various occasions. During the State Teachers Meeting in November, Orchesis gave a demonstration of folk material usable in high school. At a Pep Assembly on February 28, the club gave some tap numbers and a specialty tiger dance. Helen Frances Bice as the peppy cheer leader and Nora King and Clara Nicholas as the playful tigers were particularly well received. The numbers were repeated at the Wichita basketball game that evening.

At the High School Play Day on May 9 the Orchesis entertained the guests at the end of the day with a program of dances depicting various Olympic games.

DUCK CLUB

Duck Club is a student swimming organization of girls proficient enough to pass the membership test. After passing the preliminary test one is entitled to become a "Duckling"; passing the second and more difficult test qualifies one to become a full-pledged "Duck" and so to wear a white and yellow Duck emblem on the swimming suit. Tests are given from time to time to qualify new members.

This club always has charge of the swimming events and water games of the high school play day. This year Ruth Cross and Celeste Lowrey headed the committee for water activities. The annual spring water carnival was presented two successive evenings.

LIFE SAVING

Life Saving tests are given once during each school year by an American Red Cross representative sent out from headquarters at St. Louis. Mr. Ralph L. Carr visited Fort Hays this year on February 17th, 18th, and 19th, giving instruction and tests for Life Saving the first two days and speaking to the student body at assembly on the third. As a result of the tests, Nora King, Clara Nicholas, and Ruth Schiller were reappointed as examiners; Celeste Lowrey, Alberta Page and Patricia Shaffer, formerly senior life savers, received appointments as examiners. Other life savers in college this year were Erma Lowrey, a senior, and Rena Reed, an examiner. Clara Nicholas, Rena Reed and Patricia Shaffer have acted as life guards for the recreation swimming period for women this year.

STUDENT ASSEMBLY

There are a number of activities on our campus performing worth-while services which are brought to the attention of many students only by student assemblies. These assemblies are just what they are called, student assemblies. They are managed by persons elected from the student body at large and the programs are drawn from student organizations.

For the first semester of the year George Gruver was elected to the position of Chairman of the Student Assembly and James Wright held this office the second semester. With the cooperation of the other assembly officers, the faculty committee, and various organizations such as the Debate Club, the Orchestra Club, the Men's and Women's Glee Club, the Band, and the Orchestra, some interesting assemblies were arranged.

With the presentation of assembly programs by various campus groups, an interest in the work of these groups has been aroused in the student body. More interest is taken in school and student affairs. Thus the student assembly achieves its purpose to entertain and to inform.

"THE LITTLE THEATRE PRESENTS..."

Such a notice is sufficient to awaken the interest of the entire student body, for the Little Theatre has established an enviable reputation. This year, under the direction of Orvis Grout, it has expanded its repertoire to such an extent that a wide variety of interesting dramas have been presented to enthusiastic audiences.

The Little Theatre has interpreted its productions in such an understanding manner that it has instantly struck a responding chord in its audience. Not only have the students of Fort Hays been fortunate in seeing these productions, but also communities over points extending from Tribune to Osborne and Great Bend to Alma have had their chance to view such plays as "Outward Bound," "Three Corned Moon," and "What They Think." Each presentation has added to the Little Theatre's reputation of presenting entertaining plays. Other plays presented on the campus: "You and I," "Cradle Song," "Dear Brutus," "The Enemy," and "Sunset"—have ably upheld this reputation.

Students prominent in Little Theatre productions are:

Y. W. C. A.

"Unite all who desire to strengthen the spiritual, mental, and physical life, to promote growth in Christian character and fellowship, to train its members for Christian service, and to lead them to devote their lives to Jesus Christ in whatever field they believe they can best accomplish the most for the extension of the Kingdom of God." This purpose of the Young Women's Christian Association and the Young Men's Christian Association has been more nearly achieved this year than ever before with the teachings of Christ being more truly manifest upon this campus.

The Y. W. under the sponsorship of Miss Maude Gorham, with its officers: Esther Louderbaugh, president; Maxine Brumfield, vice-president; Margaret Bartholomew, secretary; and Anne Fankhauser, treasurer, has gone forward making this a red letter year in the history of the organization.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. the first semester was led by George Gruver as president, the second semester Keith Sebelius was elected president; Richard Bracken, vice-president; Ned Whitmer, secretary; and Maurice Wilson, treasurer. Dr. Wiest and Dr. Barton have continued to faithfully serve as sponsors. Mr. Dalton, a new member of the faculty, is the active sponsor and has become the omnipotent force in the Y. M. progress. Highlights in the year's events were the Carnival Mixer, the Newton Student Conference and Religious Week, at which Dr. Templin, of Colby, was the chief speaker. The membership of the Y. M. has increased this year from 34 to 76 young men and the Y. W. has made a substantial gain.

The organizations form a voluntary, self-determining, cohesive fellowship on our campus and are committed, through study, prayer and vicarious living, to creating and maintaining the attitudes and ideals of Jesus in all the relationships of life.

STATE COLLEGE LEADER

The Leader is the weekly student newspaper edited through the journalism department. It is a student publication the aim of which is to present a weekly picture of the campus life. It is also a medium by which the alumni may keep in touch with the college.

The Leader has been published for twenty-seven years, and has followed the growth of the school from the old Western Kansas Normal to the Fort Hays Kansas State College. It began as the "Western Kansas Leader," was changed to the "K.S.T.C. Leader," and later in 1931, to the "State College Leader."

FORENSICS

Debate! Combine days of uneventful study, hours of speech-making and scrapping and years of practice. That's debate!!

What thrills, what hopes, what thwarted desires that one small word produces in the minds of those persons who have experienced the headaches and weariness of mind created by the pang of having their own statements slapped right back at them.

Debate is steadily growing in popularity. At last those individuals whose talents seem to lie in speech-making are being more convinced that debate experience is one of the greatest assets of a public speaker. Debate gives one poise, self-control, ability to reason on one's feet, and, more than all these, the opportunity for making those friendships that only the competition of a debate tournament affords.

And thus we of this year's debate squad feel we have been so benefited. Our coach, Mr. Start, has stated that he had more good material this year than ever before, and we hope that as the years progress more and more students will find their place in college forensics.

This year the squad was composed of Walter Park, Gerald Smith, Richard Bishop, Wilbur DeYoung, Herbert Cole, John Willcox, Boyd McCandless, Clark Carlile, Omer Voss, Allen Mitchem, Keith Sebelius, Ivan Birrer, Kenneth Davenport, Marguerite Taylor, Faye Garten, Fern Vincent, Verna Ruth Harris, Gwendolyn Dimmitt, Lenore Burris, and Virginia Beason.

At the Winfield Tournament, the second largest of its kind in the United States, Lenore Burris and Gwendolyn Dimmitt paved the way for the Fort Hays debaters by emerging from their five rounds with a perfect record; John Willcox and Boyd McCandless both won the right to enter the finals in extempore oratory from which Willcox received fourth place; Faye Garten and Marguerite Taylor won three of their five debates. Others making the trip included: Walter Park, Gerald Smith, Omer Voss, Clark Carlile, Keith Sebelius, Ivan Birrer, Fern Vincent, and Verna Ruth Harris.

At the Hutchinson Tournament in which twenty-seven schools participated, Fort Hays ranked sixth in debate and, through the efforts of Marguerite Taylor and Virginia Beason, second in women's oratory. Gwendolyn Dimmitt and Lenore Burris, Omer Voss and Clark Carlile each won four of their six debates.

At the national Pi Kappa Delta tournament held at Houston, Texas, Faye Garten and Marguerite Taylor with two years of experience, Clark Carlile, first year, and Omer Voss, first year, represented the local chapter. John Willcox was our participant in men's extempore speaking; Keith Sebelius and Virginia Beason were the respective entrants in men's and women's oratory.

The Pi Kappa Delta debate question used by the colleges this year was, "Resolved, that Congress should have the power, by a two-thirds majority vote, to override decisions of the Supreme Court declaring laws passed by Congress unconstitutional." This question was both timely and interesting. And as we weigh the cases presented on either side, we find the students deriving just as much fun in characterizing our Supreme Court judges as superhuman, infallible beings as in ridiculing our Congressmen as the "best Congressmen that money can buy."

All in all we feel this debate season has been a most successful one.

PI KAPPA DELTA

Pi Kappa Delta is a far flung organization—150 chapters in 35 states and Porto Rico. The officers of the local Nu Chapter for this year have been Boyd McCandless, president; Faye Garten, vice-president; Marguerite Taylor, secretary-treasurer; and Walter Park, historian.

Fort Hays Kansas State College was represented at Winfield in the Pi Kappa Delta tournament in December by twelve students who entered both debate and extempore speaking. The college deserves to be proud of the degree of success attained in this contest.

The high school debate tournament, November 22-23, was sponsored by Pi Kappa Delta and included a dinner at Cody Commons for all debaters and coaches.

The climax of this year's work comes in representing Fort Hays Kansas State College at the National Pi

Kappa Delta tournament at Houston, Texas, March 29 to April 3. This is an honor that is coveted by everyone and a great many hours of work and practice were spent in preparation for this event. The number of contestants entered by each school is limited to one team or one entrant in each division. Those in women's debate were Faye Garten and Marguerite Taylor. Boyd McCandless and Omer Voss composed the men's team. Keith Sebelius entered in men's oratory and Virginia Beason in women's oratory. John Willcox represented the college in extempore speaking.

Those eligible for Pi Kappa Delta are: Lenore Burris, Gwendolyn Dimmitt, Verna Ruth Harris, Fern Vincent, Virginia Beason, Keith Sebelius, John Willcox, Ivan Birrer, Omer Voss, Clark Carlile, and Gerald Smith.

CLUBS

The Quill Club is an honorary organization for writers. The chapter on this campus is a member of the national organization. The purpose of this organization is the advancement of creative writing. Monthly meetings of the Quill Club are held with Boyd McCandless, as president, presiding.

Can you cook? Well, you really don't have to just cook to be a member of the Home Economics Club. Membership in this group is by election. The two outstanding features of the club are the annual Christmas party, which is centered around the old English customs, and the annual trip to the state convention. Stella Schlegel heads the organization as president, this year. Margaret Haggart is their faculty sponsor.

The Professional Club is an organization in the college to promote the interest of those who are taking professional or pre-professional training. The membership is limited to those enrolled for law and medicine. Prominent speakers in the several professions, as well as members of the faculty, appear before the club from time to time. The members of the group carry on investigation and research and make reports before the group. The club made a tour to Lawrence and Kansas City this spring. Keith Sebelius is president of the organization. Floyd B. Lee is their faculty advisor.

Are you a lover of art? Why not join the Art Club then? It is an organization for students majoring in art, and open to others especially interested in art. The programs are built around serious studies in art appreciation. They are the ones we are to thank for the fine art exhibits that come and go during the school year. Anne Fankhauser is president of the Art Club. Mabel Vandiver and J. M. Strange are faculty sponsors for the group.

The Music Department

The music department continues to thrive and grow. Prof. Henry Edward Malloy, head of the department, remains the center around which all music progress is made. Other instructors include Paul Beckhelm, instructor in piano; Lucille Felten, instructor in piano; Prof. Virgil V. Edmonds, band director, and Prof. Carl Malmberg, orchestra director.

Under the sponsorship of this department, many nationally known musicians have appeared here in concerts.

In October, Marian Kalayjian, pianist, Josephine Antoine, soprano soloist, and Kurt Brownell, tenor soloist, appeared in a concert.

In March, Joseph Knitzer, with Harry Sukman as accompanist, presented a violin concert.

These concerts were an inspiration to all who heard them.

Members of the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Lucille Felten, appeared in a home concert April 3. Other concerts were given in various western towns including Utica, Arnold, Plainville, and Hill City. The Glee Club this year consists of thirty-six members.

H. E. MALLOY, Music Director

Women's Quartet: KING, VAN DOREN, WILLIAMS, ADAMS.
Men's Quartet: VAN GUNDY, FLORA, CARSON, MEYER.

The Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Beckhelm, appeared in a home concert February 25. The Glee Club has taken three trips including Wakeeney, Oakley, Scott City, Dighton, Russell, Claflin, Osborne, and Woodston in their itinerary. Thirty-five boys are members of the club.

Members of the girls' quartet are: Mildred King, Ruby Ellen Van Doren, Lou Verne Williams, and Winifred Adams.

The men's quartet is composed of Dave Van Gundy, Leland Flora, Karl Carson, and Clinton Meyer.

Members of both quartets and the college trio, with special solo numbers, appeared at Dodge City, broadcasting for the Campus Toothpowder Company.

Music Festival Week this year proved to be one of the most successful ever held.

The opening program featuring Kathryn Meisle, contralto from the Metropolitan Opera Company, engaged the attention of all music lovers of the college.

The second feature of the Festival, "Dear Brutus," a fantasy in three acts, was presented by the Little Theatre on Monday evening. This is the first year anything of this sort has been used on the Festival program.

Tuesday evening the Kansas City Philharmonic String Quartet presented a very entertaining concert.

An organ recital was given on Wednesday evening by Porter Heaps, radio artist, and organist at the New England Congregational Church in Chicago.

On Thursday evening, the college orchestra gave a concert. A special feature of this program was a Piano Concerto in A minor by Nadyne Calvert.

Friday evening the men's and girls' glee clubs united to present a choral concert. Paul Beckhelm's a cappella choir, a feature of the concert, was received with a great deal of enthusiasm.

The final program of the Festival on Saturday afternoon, was a concert by the college band. The band, under the direction of Virgil Edmonds, displayed great skill and talent.

The spring recitals always add a brilliant climax to the work done in the music department, and the preparation made for every recital brings due credit to the musicians this year.

On April 28, Paul Beckhelm, pianist, and Daisy Child Beckhelm, soloist, well-known to Fort Hays audiences, appeared together in a recital which is an outstanding musical event of the year.

Another recital of unusual interest was that given by the String Trio, String Quartet, and the College Quintet, May 14.

The String Trio is composed of Mrs. H. E. Malloy, Miss Lucille Felten, of the faculty, and Alan Rankin, junior in the College. Members of the String Quartet include Mrs. H. E. Malloy, and Carl Malmberg, of the faculty, Bonnie Zimmerman, sophomore, and Alan Rankin, junior in the college. The Quintet consists of members of both previously mentioned groups.

Several graduate recitals were presented, displaying an unusual amount of talent.

Elaine Wise, pianist, and Ruby Ellen Van Doran, soloist, appeared on May 7.

On May 12, Marguerite Perkins, assisted by the College String Trio, appeared in a piano recital.

The last graduate recital was given by Nadyne Calvert on May 19.

PAN-HELLENIC

The Pan-hellenic organization of the Fort Hays Kansas State College was organized December 12, 1925, for the purpose of promoting better cooperation and friendliness among the sororities. Its membership is made up of two senior representatives and one junior representative from each sorority and their faculty advisor and the Dean of Women. Pan-hellenic supervises rush week activities and makes all the necessary rules and regulations. Monthly meetings are held to discuss routine problems. Each semester, Pan-hellenic sponsors a Pan-hellenic dance.

A Campus Drammer: "Two Old Hens"

CAST:

Mrs. Camp Lewis, a large woman of very independent bearing whose clothes fit rather tightly due to a recent increase in weight. She has a slight inferiority complex which she tries to cover up by appearing nonchalant. Her clothes are simple and clean but still bear a rural appearance and cut.

Mrs. Greek, also a large woman of uncertain age and more uncertain bearing whose clothes fit somewhat loosely due to a loss of weight in the past few months. There are small lines beginning to appear at her eyes and dark circles, very dark, can be seen under them. She has a sleepy, tired look due to her many family cares. Her clothes are of the latest style, with a fraternity pin holding together a rip which should have been sewed up sometime ago. She has a superior attitude.

SCENE: At Mrs. Greek's home. A large spacious place with eleven children playing in and out of it.

As the curtain rises, Mrs. Camp Lewis is seen approaching her neighbor's, Mrs. Greek, apparently to make one of those infrequent calls which seem necessary to keep peace in the two families. However, the two women are very well acquainted.

Mrs. Greek: (all smiles) Darling! How are you?

I haven't seen or heard a thing about you for so long. Won't you come in?

Mrs. Camp Lewis: I'm so glad to see you. I haven't seen anyone for so long.

Mrs. Greek: Oh, you brought your knitting. Do sit down.

Mrs. Camp Lewis: Yes, the boys wear their propaganda out so fast. They seem to catch it on barbs. It just keeps me busy, knitting them new duds.

Mrs. Greek: How are all your children, my dear?

Mrs. Camp Lewis: (rather timidly) We'll, I really don't know so awfully much about them. You know, their nurses, Hugh and W. D., have complete charge of them. I guess though that they don't always sleep well at night. (Changing the subject.) And how are all yours?

Mrs. Greek: They have their ups and downs, of course, but really my dear, you don't realize how fortunate you are in having no girls. When I think of the worry my girls have caused me, it just councils me.

It is with mixed feelings of pleasure and regret that this book is completed and distributed for your critical eye to peruse; pleasure that an enormous job is over and regret that we weren't born a year later so we could have had a shot at next year's book which in all probability will be on the activity fee. We are offering no alibis for this one. Since it is impossible to please every one, we are hoping that there are as many people who like it as there are those that don't.

In closing, we wish to express appreciation for the cooperation given by the companies who printed and engraved this book and to Brad Thompson of Topeka; Walter Wallerstedt, James R. Start, and Shirley Baird, of the college, who have been particularly helpful.

On the next twenty or so pages you will find the advertisements of certain businesses that have made this book possible. Without them there would have been no 1936 Reveille. Let's show our appreciation to them by patronizing them.

IN LATER years—when you will be out of school and active in the affairs of business — you will view these days of planning and preparing your Annual with a smile of gratification in the fact that you selected “The House of Impressions” as your printer.

During the 35 years of our business history we have produced many Annuals and are happy to number among our most loyal customers many who first became acquainted with our facilities and services when they were “on the Annual Staff.”

To you of the 1936 REVEILLE Staff we express our appreciation. We have enjoyed working with you and hope the pleasure has been mutual.

A CAMPUS DRAMMER

Mrs. C. L.: (Very, very sweetly) But girls are such a comfort about the campus. And darling, I really wouldn't pay any attention to what people say about Alpha and Delta.

Mrs. Greek: (Bristling) And just what do people say about them?

Mrs. C. L.: (A little cattily) Well, dear, everyone must admit that they never seem to get along. They are always getting their lines tangled when they go fishing for the same sucker. But I guess you have to "Gechter man."

Mrs. Greek: Yes, I'm afraid that is true. But they both work so hard, you know, and the year is such a rush season and they're always getting their teas and q's crossed. They're so ambitious, they always try to outbid each other.

Mrs. C. L.: You'll never have to worry about Pi Kap quarreling. She's the quietest little thing.

Mrs. Greek: (Sadly) Pi Kap is really my biggest worry. She just doesn't seem to get anywhere. And she was such a healthy baby, too! She's the puniest of all my girls, now.

Mrs. C. L.: How is Tri Sig getting along after her serious illness?

Mrs. Greek: It's really remarkable how Tri Sig recovered. You'd never know her for the same sickly child she was in September. You know, we thought she'd never live through the winter. All the other girls were so worried, it just seemed as though they couldn't talk of anything else but her dreadful condition. But those rushing exercises the doctor had her take helped her worlds. She gained thirteen pledges right away!

Mrs. C. L.: Didn't you have Pi Kap take the rushing exercises, too?

Mrs. Greek: (Shaking her head sadly) Pi Kap just doesn't seem to be able to take them right. She gains a few pledges at a time during the year, then commencement is such a strain she loses all the ground she has gained.

Mrs. C. L.: Well, I sympathize with you. But my own children are so healthy. It must be the Stinemetz of Birrer they drink. Why do you know, during the coldest spell, they chopped holes in the ice in the creek to take baths?

Mrs. Greek: (Giggling) I did hear rumors to that effect. But I said, "Noel, noel, a thousand times noel," I knew dear, sensible Mrs. Camp Lewis would never knowingly allow her children to do such strange things.

Mrs. C. L.: (With a Rohwer of protest) Well, at least they don't have chronic colds, like little Phi Sig does. By the way, how are Phi Sig and Kappa Beta?

Mrs. Greek: I must remember to make a good resolution for Phi Sig. Poor dear! His little nose is always so red! I must dress him more warmly. Little Kappa Beta is such a tiny fellow. It's so much fun to watch him imitate the bigger boys.

Mrs. C. L.: I really must be going. The boys will be back soon, and will expect me home. They're out hunting offices, you know.

Mrs. Greek: Do you have that trouble too? My boys like to hunt. It's their favorite occupation. And little Sigma Tau is such a little fiend at it. He goes after them for all he's worth. When it's open season, he goes about the campus armed to the teeth with pats on the back, trying to bag a few of the bigger offices. Phi Mu is pretty bad about that, too, and Phi Sig has finally caught the hunting spirit.

Mrs. C. L.: I'll never forget how excited my boys were when they bagged more offices than yours did last fall. But tell me, darling, do you have as much trouble as ever with Phi Mu and Sigma Tau fighting?

Mrs. Greek: (Indulgently) The little dears, I always said that Phi Mu and Sigma Tau were too much alike ever to get along with each other. They even have the same diseases. Why, both of them had Charlie-horse this winter and such severe attacks! They're such little hogs. They both want to play with the publications at the same time and they have a contest to see who can gain the most pledges in the shortest time.

Mrs. C. L.: I hate to rush off but I have my meals to cook.

Mrs. Greek: Getting meals is such a problem, isn't it? My children are rather finicky about what they take on. But Kappa Phi, goodness how that girl has gained! Perhaps it's because she's such a good church girl. But do tell me, what are you having tonight?

Mrs. C. L.: Schwein, you know, the boys just love pork. Some fowl, Dickey-bird. A new kind that I'd never heard of before. Also some Cole-slaw, some tomato Soukup and Newberry pie for dessert.

Mrs. Greek: Howell can they Meckel out on such light fare?

Mrs. C. L.: Oh, they do Wright well, thank you. But really, I must be running on.

Mrs. Greek: (Sweetly) I'm so glad you came darling. It's been such a pleasant afternoon. (To herself) Like (censored) it has.
